FLOOR DEBATE

February 6, 2004 LB 227

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Time, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...in a dangerous set of circumstances.
Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Thank you. Senator Smith.

SENATOR SMITH: Thank you, Mr. President, members. I have a question for Senator Aguilar.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Excuse me, Senator Smith. Senator Chambers was...light was next also.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: (Laugh) Thank you, Mr. President. I win sometimes when I'm not even trying. I told you all I was going to have to repeat and repeat and repeat, and I'm going to proceed to do that. I'd like to ask Senator Raikes a question or two.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Senator Raikes, will you yield?

SENATOR RAIKES: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Raikes, sometimes I don't follow everything you do, and sometimes I'm surprised by something you may do. Your last vote surprised me. Do you agree that if this amendment...this exception is left in the bill, that the bill will say, as its primary premise, that certain situations endanger children, and they cannot be placed in that dangerous situation without liability on the driver? The exception says, but they can be placed in that dangerous situation if an employer needs to place them there. Do you agree with that characterization of the bill?

SENATOR RAIKES: Senator, I hadn't thought of it that way. When you say liability of the driver, now, the driver would be subject to a traffic infraction. Is that the liability that you're talking about?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, under this bill that we're presenting.
